1865, was irregular, but not void, except as to part of the time covered by it. An officer executing such a tax bill is not liable for trespass. Held also that such an income tax is not in violation of that provision in the Constitution, which requires all property subject to taxation to be taxed in proportion to its value: Glasgow v. Rowe, 43 Mo.

TAXES.

A village tax collector, leaving a tax warrant in due form of law made out against the tax payers of the village, among whom are various stockholders in a bank, some of whom refuse to pay their taxes, and others direct him to call at the bank and receive their taxes, has no right to take from a drawer in the bank, without the consent of the officers, sufficient money to pay the taxes of such stockholders; even though each person named as a stockholder on the assessment roll and tax warrant may have left with the bank dividends unpaid, sufficient to pay his taxes: The First National Bank of Sandy Hill v. Fancher, 52 Barb.
